ST. JAMES A. M. E. ZION CHURCH.
The members gave a reception in honor of their pastor and wife last Wednesday night. Dr. W. E. Shaw, our efficient Presiding Elder, was Master of Ceremonies. The welcome on behalf of the church by Brother Thos. Flemings; short speeches by Rev. Collins and Burks; Solo by Rev. Green; Rev. Beard's choir furnished the music; Mrs. Flemings rendered selections from Dunbar. The pastor, Dr. H. R. Jackson, made a happy response. Sisters Perry, Batts, Scott, Johnson, Fleming and Jones served the refreshments which were given free by the members. Everybody was served and expressed themselves as being highly entertained. Rev. Hilliard conducted Class Friday night. Brother S. Vaughn is going ahead with Class No. 2. The pastor preached a powerful sermon Sunday morning, text "What I Have Written I Have Written" Jno. 19:22. Rev. H. C. Johnson preached at the evening service. Sisters Julius Franklin, Q. Jackson, Miller and Smith and Brothers Franklin, Calloway, Mason and Hampton worshipped with us.
Sister Ada Mickles,
Pres. of Church Board.
Sister Cook, Sec'y.
Sister Shuler, Treas.

VINE ST. BAPTIST CHURCH.
All services were well attended Sunday. There were a great many visitors. We were glad to see them and we invite them to our church again. Mrs. Lydia Hines, 2011 Ashlow Avenue, the mother of Deacon Hines, is very sick. She has been sick for some time and is better at this writing. We hope she will continue to improve. Mr. Sam Graham has been confined to his room at 1442 Norton avenue, on account of a broken ankle. He is also some better. We for his trip to Excelsior Springs was $115.39 instead of $15.00 as published last week.

BLUE VALLEY BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. A. W. Lightsey, Pastor.

The Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. board met with the Blue Valley Baptist Church Sunday, September 30, and October 1st. There were quite a few members present also quite a few visitors. We certainly enjoyed their stay with us. Services were nicely attended all day Sunday. Our pastor was at his best Sunday morning. He delivered a soul-stirring sermon. All who were present certainly enjoyed it. Our pastor has improved in health very much and is able to take up his work again. Brother Hopkins was very faithful during Rev. Lightsey's absence. We certainly appreciate the work he did for us. Mrs. H. P. Smith of Detroit, Mich., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. White last Monday.

WAS TO BE MORE YELLING

Safe to Say That Father's Prediction Turned Out to Be Absolutely Correct.

The sweetly peaceful scene in the little sitting room was suddenly disturbed by a loud yell, and the honored guest sprang wildly from the chair into which he had just sunk, while the daughter of the house felt her face grow pale.

She had had hopes from this visit. Alas, poor girl, were they to be blighted?

But father took the matter—and his small son—firmly in hand. With a graceful apology he removed the bent pin from the chair and the aforesaid small boy from the room.

"Now, look here, Charles," he said sternly, in the back yard, "why did you do it?"

"It—it was an experiment, father!" faltered the lad.

"An experiment!" snorted father. "The only man who has visited your poor sister for years, and you go and drive him away!"

"Well, dad," explained the boy, "he advertises that he is a painless dentist, and I wanted to find out if it was true, and it wasn't. You should have heard him yell!"

"Yes," was the father's grim comment. "And some one else is going to hear you yell now!"

Psychological Moment.

"Do you mean to say that an old-timer like you feels uneasy when called upon to make a political speech?"

"Yes," admitted Senator Sorghum, "though I won't say it's exactly stage fright. You never can tell when everything might have gone your way if you hadn't happened to spring the wrong epigram or funny story."

LET'S LEND HIM A HELPING HAND

also hope he will continue to improve. The Sunday School teachers will take examinations the third Sunday in this month.

ST. STEPHEN'S BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. J. W. Hulse, Pastor.

We had splendid services all day Sunday. At 11:30 we had an old southern Speaking Meeting which was enjoyed by all present. Our pastor, who has been ill for some time, was not present, although we are glad to know he is improving. We pray earnestly for his recovery as St. Stephen's is at a loss without him. Our Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. are on the front line. We have front line leaders in these Auxiliaries. Sister Hampton, the Superintendent and Mrs. Moseley, Pres. with their excellent corps of officers are making the town sit up and take notice. They are doing real effective work. Night services were good. Solo by Mrs. Hill; sermon by Brother E. James, subject, "A Christian's Walk." His sermon was good. Collection $89.50. The amount given the pastor

Rev. Vaughn preached two able sermons for us Sunday in the absence of our pastor. Many strangers were present and we were proud to have them. The Sunday School attendance was very good and Mrs. Ada Frazier the Asst. Supt. was kept quite busy. We enjoyed Dean Vaughn's interesting remarks on the lesson. The attendance at the Endeavor was very good also. You missed a good treat if you were not present. Dean Vaughn was there and we were glad to have him with us. The choir was as usual, at their best. The Junior Stewardess Board met at Sister Mays at 1010 Michigan avenue Tuesday evening. The president, Mrs. Thompson, resigned as she is going to California. Mrs. Anna Downing was elected president. The Junior Board will serve dinner all day Saturday. There will be an Official Board Meeting Monday night, October 11 to make arrangements for the ensuing year.
